

TRAVELLING

Max Dereta (1950) is an adventurer and photographer but also cartoonist, filmmaker, graphic designer and much more. His passion for skydiving began in 1967 in his motherland Croatia. In 1975 he moved to the Netherlands and lived in various places until he settled in Rotterdam in 2000. In the period 1975-1984, he worked as illustrator and graphic designer but he also pursued his photographic and journalistic talents.

His aerial travel and (air)adventure features have been published in (inter)national magazines such as: Action Asia, AD Magazine, Air & Space, Cosmopolitan, De Telegraaf, Esquire, Focus, Holland Herald, National Geographic Traveler, Nieuwe Revu, Panorama, Penthouse, Playboy, Seasons, Stern, etc.

Prizes: • Weekeinde / ABC Public prize • 3rd prize Fuji Europress Foto • Golden Pen Award

“The exhibition is a mix of photographs of people, places and adventures; unusual collection of surprising spaces, colours and details captured on mysterious and exotic locations around the world, on the ground and in the air.”
